

Bounties - External

We run bounties on goals that help both you and the company grow! All you need to do to collect a bounty is just let us know when you meet the goal by sending an email to help@focusedlabs.io. If you're working on something let us know to so we don't end a bounty before you finish!

Certification Bounties

Certification bonuses are meant to cover the cost of any study materials you may need leading up to your certification test. This means that Focused Labs will not pre-pay you for any study materials you may need.

- CKAD Certification - Anyone who completes the CKAD will receive a bounty.
- CKA Certification - Anyone who completes the CKA will receive a bounty. If three individuals earn this certification within 1 week of each other they will each earn an additional per person
- AWS Certification - Any person who achieves a foundational certification (Cloud Practitioner) that helps bring us up to the Select Consulting Partner tier will receive a bonus, and technical certification that helps bring us up to the Select Consulting Partner Tier will receive a bonus.

- GCP Certification - The first 3 people who earns a qualifying certification will earn a bounty. Anyone who completes a certification the same week will also receive. Anyone who completes a qualifying GCP certification following will receive.
 - Note: Focused Labs needs to maintain at least 2 certifications from the Professional category to qualify for the Partner Advantage program
